

Gottlieb
Memorial
Hospital

Acute Rehabilitation Unit

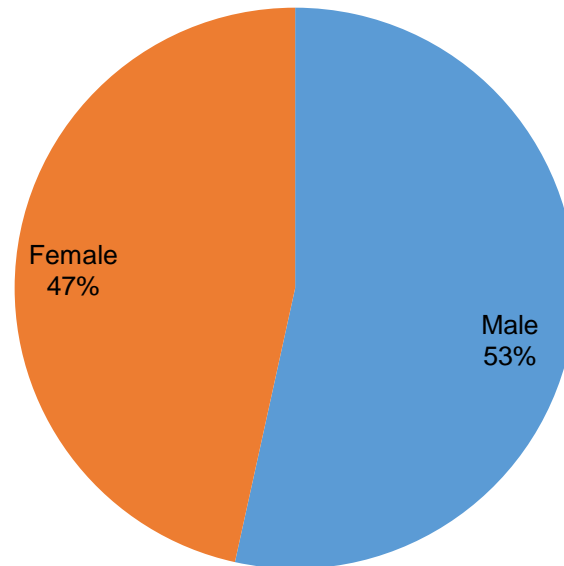

Information and Metrics

General Information for the Acute Rehabilitation Unit

- 20 Private Beds
- Average length of stay: 13 days (Consistent with national average)
- Average age of our patients: 67 years
- 73% of our patients are discharged back to their home

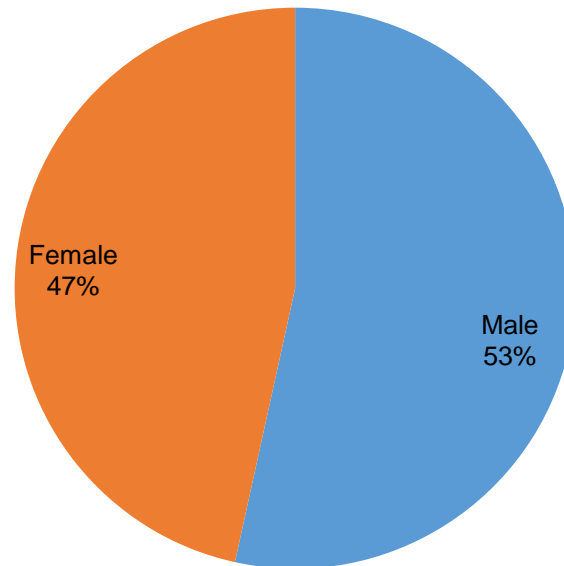

Genders of patients served 2018

Gender of Patients Served

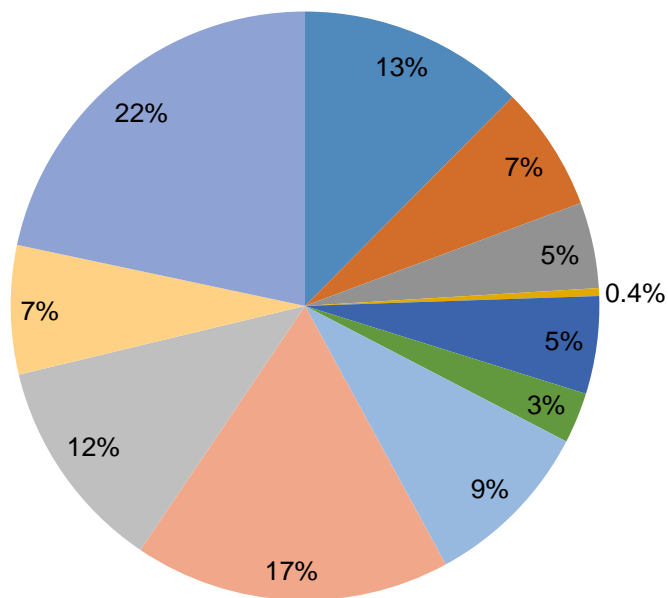

Genders of patients served 2018

Gender of Patients Served

Impairments treated on the Rehabilitation Unit 2018

Commonly Treated Impairments on the Rehabilitation Unit

- Acquired brain injury
- Amputations
- Arthritic conditions
- Burns
- Heart disorders (LVAD included)
- Major multiple trauma
- Neurological disorders (i.e. Multiple Sclerosis, Guillian-Barre syndrome)
- Orthopedic conditions
- Debility conditions (i.e. Cancer, Transplant)

Gottlieb
Memorial
Hospital

Acute Rehabilitation Unit for Loyola University Health System at Gottlieb Memorial Hospital

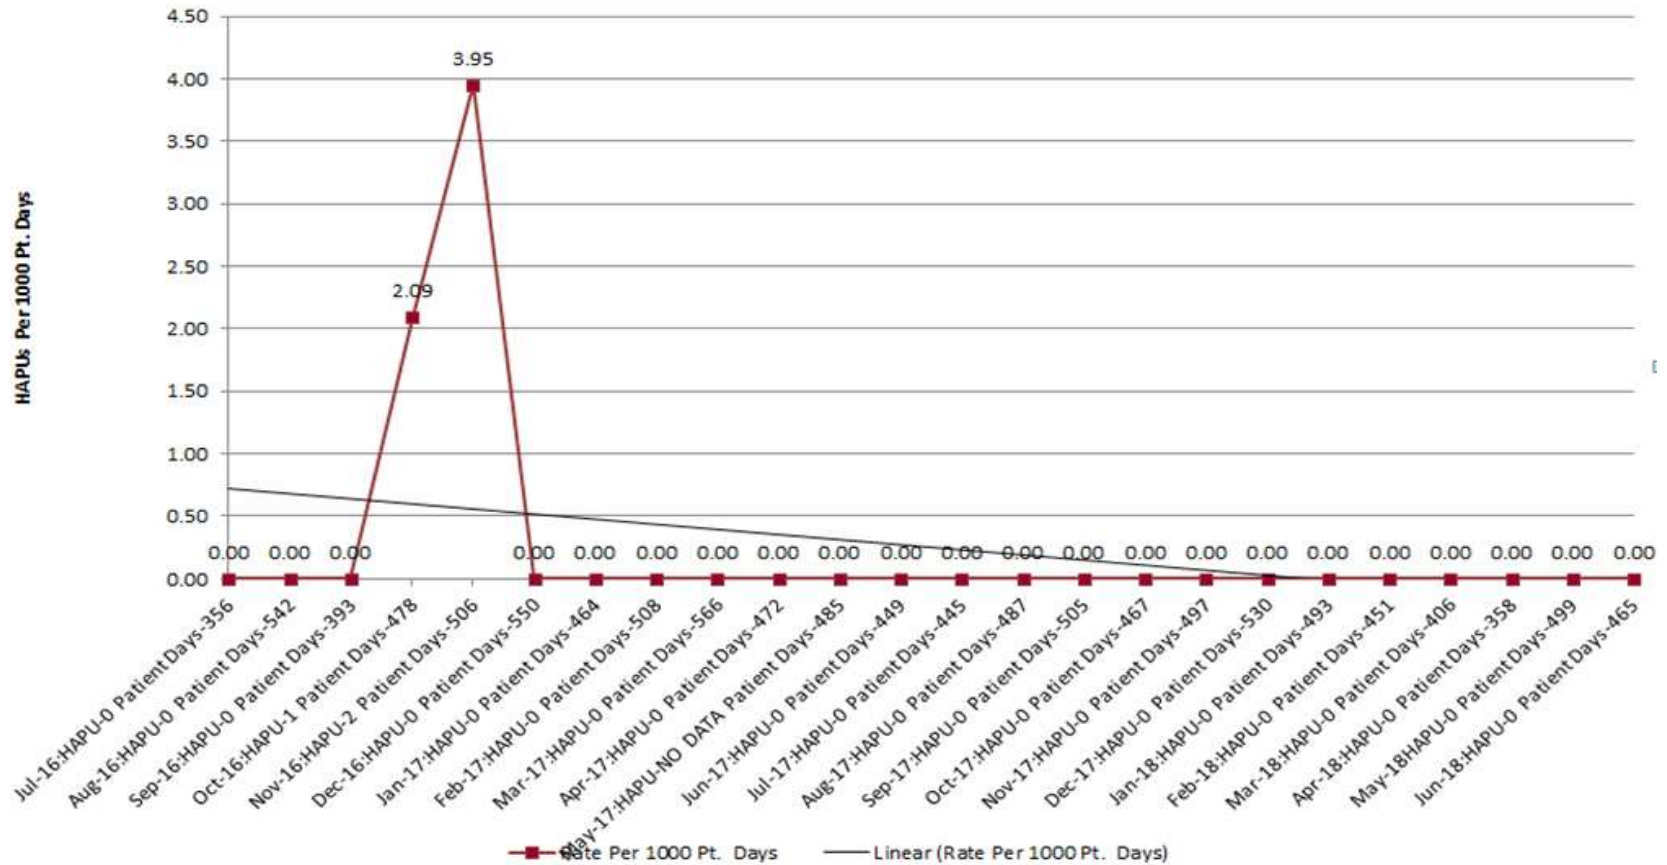

Patient Outcomes in 2017*

Diagnosis	Number of Patients Served	Average FIM Score Change per Day	Average Length of Stay (days)	% of Patients Discharged to Home
Stroke	101	1.89	16.01	64%
Neurological Condition	44	2.02	13.8	82%
Brain Injury	58	2.11	12.21	72%
Orthopedic	103	2.29	10.9	76%
Major Multiple Trauma	13	2.11	12.65	89%
Spinal Cord Injury	33	1.62	13.15	67%
Cardiac	25	2.35	11.32	84%
Amputation	32	1.85	12.32	68%
Miscellaneous	57	2.12	10.70	81%

Gottlieb
Memorial
Hospital

Low Incidence of Pressure Injuries (Hospital Acquired Pressure Injuries (HAPU))

Data Source: ICLJ, 3W, 5S, 5W, 6S, Monthly Wound Care Performance Improvement Program Forms (monthly chart audits);
 Numerator: Count of Hospital Acquired Pressure ulcers Denominator: Per 1000 patient days
 QMR Analyst: Laura Miller ext. 85133

Gottlieb
Memorial
Hospital